stand than our Alberta winter here.

A movement sponsored by the Ladies Aid of the United church was made to make extensive repairing on their church here. At present writing the ceiling of the church has been insulated and the windows tightened up. This alone saves about eighty percent of the heat that has been wasted and the added comfort is noticeable. When building materials can be procured a good sized room will be added onto the back of the church which will serve the purpose more conveniently in handling the Sunday school work and will also serve as a place to hold special meetings etc.

The Ladies Aid of the United church was entertained at their monthly meeting by Mrs. Frank Webber at the home of Mrs. Arthur Tustian, Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 4, with a goodly number in attendance. ## F.I.L.A. 495 Loans In Alberta in 1947

OTTAWA Feb. 9—Alberta farmers borrowed $436,276 through 495 loans under the provisions of The Farm Improvement Loans Act during 1947 for the purpose of construction or repairs to farm buildings.

The Alberta branches of the chartered banks made the loans under a partial Government guarantee against loss which is a provision of the Act. Loans for the construction of a new farm home or utility building, or the carrying out of repairs, alterations and additions to the existing buildings was 39.61% greater in Alberta during 1947 than in the previous year.

In 1946 414 loans were made to an amount of $312,492.79 under the section of F.I.L.A. which provides for this phase of farm improvements.

Alberta led all other western provinces for 1947 with the amount borrowed by its farmers for this purpose.

Canada Asked to Help Needy of Europe-Asia

Canada today is being asked to contribute to help the needy of Europe and Asia and that help is sought by the most deserving—the boys and girls of the world who have been innocent victims of the war.

Those of us whose lives are spent within hospital corridors, know first hand the value of our equipment. At our disposal we have lab for research, x-ray equipment for accurate diagnosis, modern surgical instruments and all things necessary for the treatment of the sick. But there are those of us who complain that some facilities are lacking. And maybe their complaints are justified.

How different in countries ravaged by war! More than three million children in Europe are hungry. To protect their feet they wear rags, on their backs, too, are tattered clothes. Malnutrition is rampant. And in its wake has come tuberculosis and rickets. All diseases are on the increase. With the elements and want sapping their vitality, these children fall easy prey to illness and hospitals, those not smashed during five years of war, are fighting a losing struggle.

Recent surveys conducted in these countries evidence the dire plight of the hospitals. Treating the ill is a make-shift business. Labs have been wrecked and libraries sacked. Surgical instruments have been pillaged or lost. Everything that goes for the operation of a hospital is in short supply.

Canada is now in the midst of a campaign to raise funds for the children of Europe and Asia. It is the Canadian Appeal for Children. The money will be used for the purchase of food and clothing. Money will also be spent to equip hospitals. Until Europe and Asia have recovered from the ills of war, the world will remain in an unhealthy state. If you wish to aid in this recovery plan, send your donation to any branch of any bank in Canada. The need is great. The need is urgent.

Owing to the extreme cold, services at the United church were cancelled last Sunday evening.

The Rising Cost Of Living

RISING LIVING COSTS HAVE BEEN CAUSING concern in all parts of Canada during the past few months. On December 1st, 1947, the cost of living index stood at 146, and it is expected that when the next report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics is made public in February, this figure may show an increase, due to the continued advances in the prices of some commodities. Some time ago, officials of the Dominion Department of Finance predicted that the cost of living index would not likely go higher than 145, but it now appears that it may exceed that figure considerably. In 1920, which was the peak year of inflation in Canada following the First Great War, the cost of living index was 145.4, which was a record for high living costs in the Dominion. In calculating the present cost of living index, the basic figure of 100 represents price levels between the years 1935 and 1939.

Rapid Rate Of Increase

The figures given for December 1st, 1947, shows that the cost of living is now almost fifty per cent. higher than it was in the basic period, and that it has risen 39 points in the past year. Since April, 1947, the increase was shown to be 15.1 points, indicating that there was a rapid advance in prices between April and December of last year. Although the prices of almost all goods have risen, increases in the price of food are believed to be the main cause of the rapid rise in the cost of living index. Such decisive upward trends in living costs indicate inflation, which is apparently an unavoidable accompaniment to the economic upheaval caused by war. Through price controls, subsidies, and other measures, Canadians were for some time protected from inflation, but it was inevitable that these controls should eventually be lifted and that we should pass through a period of economic adjustment.

Warned-Not To Over-Expand

It is to be hoped that we may this time be able to avoid the pattern of past periods of inflation, when profits and wages continued to rise in a spiraling fashion, until disaster struck. Financial experts are of the opinion that we may safely pass through this period of inflation but that we must industries against over-expansion in the matter of buying expensive equipment, counting on continuing high prices and large profits to meet their costs. They also advise no slackening of effort on the part of either labor or management in our industries or in the development of our natural resources. Without doubt Canada is now passing through a very critical time in her history and one which will lead either to a state of sound progress and development or to a depression. No one can forecast exactly what will happen but there are many who believe that, with increased markets for Canadian products both at home and abroad, we will continue to enjoy a large measure of prosperity. It is to be sincerely hoped that this may be the course which the country will follow and that the present trend toward inflation will not lead to financial disaster.

Barley Title Winner Hits Record In 1947

George Gwyllt Of Kelvington, Sask., Won 31 Awards Besides Barley Championship (Central Press Canadian)

George Gwyllt, 75-year-old pioneer of the Kelvington, Sask., district, figures he has won 31 awards this year. In addition to winning the title of the world's champion grower of barley at the Chicago International Grain Show, Mr. Gwyllt took 31 other awards for his grain and forage crop seed exhibited at Saskatoon, Regina, Toronto, and Chicago.

It was his biggest year in the 30 he has spent trying to produce the best kind of seed.

As an opener for 1948, Mr. Gwyllt won a regional first prize in the national barley contest, and was third for the province in the same competition.

Born of Welsh parents in Staffordshire, England, George Gwyllt came to Canada in 1903. He worked in Saskatoon and Calgary at his trade of a brick manufacturer, but decided to take up farming at Hanley, Sask., just a year before World War I upset the grain market overseas, returned in 1919 to take up a wheat land grant near Kelvington. He still farms the same land, likes to tell of his faith in the district at times when other settlers were talking about getting out.

Mr. Gwyllt started in on the production of barley seed after he established his farm, and through the years has earned a high reputation among farmers of the province, and far beyond it. A long-time member of the Canadian Registered Seed Growers Association, he is a highly regarded man on the big branch of that association at Kelvington.

At a recent meeting of the seed growers in Saskatoon, Mr. Gwyllt proudly showed the ribbons he won at Chicago December. The world's barley championship award was his proudest prize. "I've been working for this for 30 years," he explained.

The aging farmer, who hopes to be growing seed grain and winning prizes for "a lot of years yet," attributes his success to the best land in the west, plenty of hard work to produce good results, and the fact that he had a lot of valuable help from both the dominion and provincial departments of agriculture, but most of all the help I have had from Mrs. Gwyllt has been the greatest factor in my success," he said.

Mr. Gwyllt hopes to put in a hamper year in 1948, and feels his national barley contest success has given him a flying start.

B.C. MINES SET RECORD

VANCOUVER — Production of British Columbia mines in 1947 was more than $100,000,000 in far excess of any previous year. It was established at a B.C. chamber of mines meeting held yesterday. Unprecedented demands for base metals at high prices caused re-opening of old mines and development of new ones.

IMMERSION SUITS FOR DUNKED FLIERS — All U.S. navy fliers, stationed at the reserve air station in Squaw Lake, Minn., made use of the new immersion suits, with which they take to the air over icy waters. These immersion suits, which weigh but 20 ounces, are made of rubber and nylon, and seal the body completely, thereby retaining the warmth of the body in icy waters. When being dunked, fliers "float" — i.e., they can float in the water quite comfortably and be warm enough to give him a better chance of rescue in event of accident. Without such equipment, a man can freeze to death in a matter of minutes. The suits are easily slipped over the fliers' regular clothing. They aren't cumbersome or bulky, and when not in use can be rolled up into a small bundle. Here Lieut. George Spooner "coolly" smokes a cigar as he relaxes in the icy water. Quite comfortably, too, he says.

Undaunted, Fish raised his rifle again and at this time downed the animal with a bullet in the neck.

REAL RADIO PROBE
CALLED FOR

Radio is directly connected with the winning of elections and therefore with the choice by the voters of a Government to administer the affairs of the country. The late Premier Aberhart, Social Credit Premier of Alberta used Radio freely to sell his "funny money" theories to the people of this Province; while the CCF finds it an ideal medium for the circulation of propaganda, since radio speeches are not easily studied or checked. More orthodox politicians, too, contribute to filling the air with political speeches. Because Radio, then, is so directly connected with the business of getting elected for politicians, both individually and as parties or groups, it should obviously be kept free from political control. Otherwise there is always the danger that the electorate may be misled or that the dice may be unfairly loaded. Many responsible citizens fear that political control of Radio is not merely possible, but probable, under the present CBC set-up. Through this the Government of the day may grant or deny licenses to operate radio stations under the influence of political considerations. It may "hire of fire" CBC's Chairman or any member of the Board of Governors for better reasons. But Radio's freedom from political control is not alone at stake. The Canadian Daily Newspaper Association, a national body that may be presumed to know what it is talking about, has made it clear, in turn, that the development of electronic devices for the transmission and production of "Facsimile" newspapers by Rad's constitutes a grave potential danger to the freedom of the Press. In opinion of a number of leading publishers, in fact, this danger may become a reality all too soon.

Such a situation emphatically calls for immediate and thorough investigation by some qualified body, with a view to regulating it in the general interest. Good friends even of the CBC have called for such an investigation.

There is, of course, the Radio Committee of the House of Commons which tries to scrutinize the functioning of Radio in general and of the CBC in particular. It is ill-equipped, however, for the task, because it is composed of party politicians, men unfamiliar with Radio and too busy to give it adequate study, in any case. Moreover, it acts under terms of reference that are too narrow to be effective, while its decisions carry little weight because they are suspected of partisan bias. The most probable probe, therefore, and the one that public opinion would warmly endorse, is the setting up, if not of a Royal Commission, then at least of a Senate Investigating Committee.

By all means, the public who pay for state-owned Radio deserve to be given satisfactory assurance that they are not contributing their money to the forging of a political weapon designed to destroy their democratic freedom—The Quebec Chronicle-Tele-

YOUR WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES can be cashed!

THE payoff on War Savings Certificates has begun. If you are among the thrifty people who own War Savings Certificates, NOW is the time to look them over, sort them out by months and as they fall due, endorse them and mail to Ottawa as described on the back of each Certificate. A cheque for the full face value of each Certificate will be sent to you in due course.

But here is another suggestion...

Have the Royal Bank of Canada do all this "office work" and sorting for you. Save yourself the bother of searching out the right pieces of paper each month, endorsing them and mailing them off to Ottawa.

Here's what you do: Bring all your War Savings Certificates which you have at home or in your safe deposit box, to your nearest Royal Bank Branch. We will put them in our vaults for safekeeping.

As the Certificates fall due, we will cash them for you and deposit the full face value (which includes interest) in the savings account of the registered owner, automatically. If you have no account with us, we will open one for you for this purpose.

The cost of this service, including safekeeping until your Certificates mature, is low, as the following table shows.

Think Capitalism at Root of Trouble

Editor: The Alberta:

Many letters and articles appear almost daily in the public press, for and against — mostly, against — Communism.

Now I am not a Communist but I do firmly believe that a planned Socialist economy will have to be introduced before this chaotic world can be come stabilized again.

It isn't any use howling about "Communist destruction" of our Canadian way of life, because the Communist party — LPP is still only in the diaper stage. The LPP has very little political strength in Canada, not yet having any representation in the House at Ottawa and having only two or three representatives in the legislatures of Manitoba and Ontario. They couldn't do much damage to Canada if they wanted to; and I don't think for a moment they want to.

The near hysterical ravings against Russia—our late glorious allies, that is what we called them at one time—and the Communists don't taste or smell good to me at all.

Capitalism has got itself, all over the world, into such a state of confusion and decay that it must find a magnified excuse to cover its own weakness and to hide the truth of its weakness to function in the interest of the peoples it is supposed to serve.

I ask these few questions: Is Communism, or Russia, responsible for the present disgraceful high cost of living? For the world monetary debacle? For homeless thousands of starving hungry men, women and children? For the miserable pensions paid old and blind people? Was Communism responsible for Nazism and Fascism which bred the wholesale slaughter in World War II? Was Communism responsible for World War One, the South African War, Spanish American war, Franco-Prussian war and many other wars fought under the so-called democratic system of capitalism?

Why must we deny this undeniable truth which is that capitalism when it got into a jam always used war as its method of stabilizing itself. No greater example of the idiocy of our present profit system can be produced than the fact apparent to all who want to see that after we have destroyed the countries of Europe and Asia by a terrible war, we must now find the money and the means to rebuild the countries we destroyed and to house and feed the homeless starving millions caused by a war seeded, born, and sundered by capitalism itself.

Nazism and Fascism are both children of capitalism and I am deeply sorry to say that World War II did not destroy either child. Fascism is still rearing its ugly head in many countries. In Britain, the U.S. (the Taft-Hartley Act is a gem of Fascism) and in Canada. In Great Britain, Oswald Mosley is bragging that he will revive his party again. Why this scum, who would have run England knee deep in blood by aiding Hitler if Germany had successfully invaded Britain, is allowed to remain alive whilst German, Italian and Japanese war criminals have been executed is something I don't understand.

It is my opinion that this constant barrage against the Communist is mostly a smoke screen to confuse the workers minds and to hide the glaring faults of capitalism. If workers come out on strike for a just increase in wages it is Communist-inspired.

My firm belief is that in the near future a drive will be put on by the bosses, both in Canada and the U.S., to batter down work and wages. Before this is done methods will be used to split the ranks of organized labor by subtle propaganda both by voice and press. A campaign of abuse against labor union leaders will be launched which will seek to plant seeds of suspicion and distrust in the minds of union members, against their leaders. The union members will be asked to believe that their organization is Communist-controlled and a division of the membership sought in many unions by slimy methods of this sort. My advice to union men is to stand fast and solid at all times. Do not fall for the tactics of the boss class.

Much has been said and written about the selfish wage demands of labor, but the undeniable truth is that the greatest wage or salary increase ever received in Canadian history was received by members of the Federal Parliament at Ottawa. Now MP's are supposed to be employees of the Canadian people. Our votes put them there. Well! Did the MP's reciprocate with a salary increase with their employers, the Canadian people. They did not. They just said we are going to raise our pay checks 50 per cent, or $2,000 a year tax free. Now the House sits for only seven or eight months a year and many members absent themselves from the sittings whenever they feel like it. How would you like a seven months a year job which gave you an increase of $2,000 a year and the right to play "hookey" whenever you felt like it. When it comes to getting a wage increase Ottawa has shown labor unions to be poor pickers.

Three bulls escaped from a slaughterhouse. One was a big bull, one was a medium-sized bull, and one was a very small bull. The big bull ran into a barn across the road and was captured in no time flat. The medium-sized bull stopped for a red light on the corner and was promptly lassoed. The small bull, however, led his pursuers a merry chase before he was rounded up. The reason for this is that a little bull goes a long way.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

Does the man who rushes through his work really accomplish more?

Very rarely, I think. For such a man is using emotion instead of his head. He concentrates on haste instead of efficiency. Before he finishes one thing he is mentally rushing on to the next. So he never does anything thoroughly.

Moreover, the unfortunate effects of such a temperament are felt in many directions. By his nervous actions and rapid-fire speech, Mr. Rush creates a feeling of tension and confusion in other people. Thus he multiplies his own inefficiency.

Speed is desirable only when it is the result of sound planning, increased skill, and the elimination of waste motion.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY

THE DIAMOND

By KURT VON FISCHER

ON THE "Nieuwe Kade" in Amsterdam, the quay where the big liners serving passenger traffic to London are moored, stood a man with a cigar between his lips. Through a slightly open leather on the huts and contemplating the green waves washing over the granite squares of the wall, he viewed with furiously excitement a policeman, who stood motionless, legs apart, some 10 yards away.

The man with the cigar casually turned his back towards the uniformed figure. He was of small, lean stature, with an olive complexion and thin, black moustache. Nobody would have suspected him to be the well-known diamond grinder Willem Verhaert, whose mysterious disappearance half a year ago had had busily engaged the attention of police headquarters of many a European capital.

Suddenly the man threw his half-finished cigar into the water. Then he took off his coat from his shoulders and lit it. He deeply inhaled the smoke, puffing it out nervously.

The policeman growls suspicious? Was everything to go wrong at the very last moment, the plan of one year to be nullified? Certainly he too had the diamond as his birthright and did it between his quivering palms. Could the policeman suspect that, hidden in an artificially cooled capsule in the middle of the bulging tobacco leaves there was the missing Vizel diamond?

For years Verhaert had been one of the most esteemed diamond grinders of Amsterdam's flourishing industry. But though the worth of millions ran through his fingers he had never succeeded in achieving more than a moderate financial position. Now he was nearing the fifteen.

a bachelor and filled with feverish greediness for the luxuries of life.

And it was then that he determined upon and planned the great coup. A lucky coincidence had delivered a fortune into his hands. The Vizel Diamond, newly found in South Africa and the tenth largest in the world, was given to him for grinding.

Soon the papers had a sensation.

The well-known grinder Verhaert had disappeared together with the precious diamond.

Whichever road blocked and checked all roads, transportation, the principal in all this excitement sat in his ingeniously prepared hide-out in a cellar and subjected his body to a torture.

By hunger, excessive sweating and extreme gymnastics he lost his weight many pounds during a few weeks.

The podgy Verhaert changed into an emaciated creature. Staining of his skin with permanganate of potash, striggin applied to the eyes, a moustache was dyed with henna and a false excuse of "traveling" gave the form of the famous dame of hair created the French champagne salesman Emile Verlon, bearer of the forged passport.

Half a year in the dark and then he risked the step across the frontier. On the 15th of January he could begin. During passport inspection everything went well; not even his own mother would have recognized him. The customs control was exceedingly thorough, the officials still searching for the diminished diamond and even subjected to a body inspection. But during the whole procedure he flauntingly chewed his Havana, right under the eyes of the officials.

For two months he had laboriously worked on the production of a cigar which nobody could certainly have aroused the suspicion of the officials. But he had succeeded in producing an effect out of real tobacco leaves, which gave quite a natural impression, was perfectly smokeable and still covered the diamond in its hollow. The word was "success" and the word: "Passes!" He had succeeded.

And now, when only embarkation remained, now, after he had cleverly overcome all critical situations, now, in the very last moment was everything to come to naught?

What would this policeman have noticed about him? Impossible! Or did he, by heavens, suspect the cigar? Not very likely, either. But why was he now, staring at him?

An icy chill ran his limbs. The policeman stepped towards him. "Give me the cigar, will you?" he heard a cold, hard voice say.

Willem Verhaert closed his eyes, his hands shook. He was unable to type or read. He was numb, but not brave. Also after his terrible loss of strength he would have been physically unable to fight.

He fatidically awaited the clicking of the handcuffs, the snap of the bolt, nothing like it happened.

The policeman still stood facing him. He even smiled amiably now. "You know, sir," he said, throwing the cigar carelessly into the sea. "Building over there is the gasoline plant. Smoking is strictly forbidden here!"

Fake Doctor Poisons Staff To Loot Bank

TOKYO.—Tokyo police reported a doctor posing as a public health doctor had induced the entire staff of a bank to take quick-acting poison that killed 12 and injured four others critically.

Verhaert had broken into the building, a branch of the Teikoku Bank, 300,000 yen ($6,000) was piled on a desk, the safe door stood open and the fake doctor had vanished. Whether he had been frightened away without harm was not determined, pending a check of the safe.

One woman had crawled in agony to the street to call help.

Salada Tea Sales Increase

The year 1947 showed substantial increases over '45 and '46 in Salada Tea Sales, the total volume being almost double the average annual sales from 1935 to 1939.

This firm, from the first time they packaged tea depended for their success on two main factors, a strict supervision of quality of their product and advertising to the public through newspapers.

This is their fifty-sixth year of tea packaging and their newspaper advertising programme is undiminished—truly a guide to how to succeed in business for newcomers in other lines—quality goods and advertising.

PHONE CONSTRUCTION

EDMONTON.—An outlay of approximately $600,000 will be made by the Alberta government telephone system on a new toll exchange now under construction just west of the city telephone building, it was learned recently.

The Trochu Memorial Arena

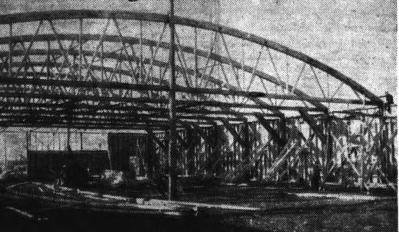

Trochu Memorial Arena

In April of 1947 plans were made 300x85 size and the building itself is approximately 100x240. The north end of the Arena is a large waiting room where lunches are served during intermissions, and several dressing rooms. There is a heating capacity for over a thousand spectators and standing room for nearly six hundred. This space was entirely filled for the official opening on January 9th.

Walter Anderson, Exalted Ruler of the Elks and John Hanna secretary were active in the enterprise. John Hanna, who was chairman of the committee, worked untiringly for the success of the project, assisted by C. M. Kane. The finance committee were ably directed by J. P. Ferguson.

Work commenced in June and just four months later the Arena was ready for use, though there is much still to be done. Steam heating equipment is to be installed and the building insulated.

Reports Job Prospects For 1948 "Bright"

Winter Drop In Employment Has Not Been As Severe As Year Ago

OTTAWA—Labor Minister Mitchell in his department's monthly manpower survey reports that job prospects for 1948 are "bright".

The seasonal winter drop in employment has not been as severe as a year ago, Mr. Mitchell said. Jobless registered with National Employment Service are down 10 per cent. from the corresponding time last year.

Walter Anderson, Exalted Ruler of the Elks and John Hanna secretary were active in the enterprise. John Hanna, who was chairman of the committee, worked untiringly for the success of the project, assisted by C. M. Kane. The finance committee were ably directed by J. P. Ferguson.

This gigantic project so successfully accomplished is a tribute to the co-operation displayed by the 1,000 citizens of Trochu and district.

THE VEIN proves rich, a shaft is sunk, and a new mining town springs into life. The main street takes form. Commercial buildings rise.

When such a development occurs, the services of a bank are needed — to handle payrolls, to keep savings accounts and, as the town grows, to furnish bank credit for the needs of the community.

This is a basic pattern in Canada's development. And part of it is the local bank manager, providing those financial services which help Canadian men and women to win the rewards of modern enterprise and modern living.

BESL AUXILIARY

Blairmore Graphic,
Blairmore, Alberta.

At long last the B.E.S.L. now have formed the Ladies Auxiliary. This is indeed a much needed branch of the B.E.S.L. in any community, and proud as we might be of our past accomplishments in banquet arrangements and such, it still hasn't got that "woman's touch" which makes arrangements fully complete. It is the duty of all "eligible" (I like that word) members to get behind this auxiliary and make it an organization to be proud of.

The duties and work involved of a B.E.S.L. Auxiliary are numerous and of great benefit to veterans' families and the community as a whole — get behind it "gals".

The BESL Local of Blairmore have a Club Room and facilities second to none! Thanks to the aggressive committee and President now in office.

Dealing again with that word "eligibility" and after reading the Press Correspondent's report as published in the Blairmore Graphic, February 6, "Quote" — We just love having that man Glynn around. H'm, think I'll keep my wife home until he gets hooked. Yes girls he's eligible, but I often hear him remark, I don't want her, you can have her and so on. So you have a problem child even if he is eligible. Best of luck ladies on this new venture. I'm sure you can count on unlimited support of all the comrades of No. 7.

THE WORLD'S FUTURE IS BEING DECIDED NOW

OUR TOMORROWS depend on what happens to the world's children TODAY. In ruined lands around the globe there are millions of them in misery — scrabbling for shreds of food on garbage dumps, shivering in rags. On the continent of Europe, half the children born since the war are already dead of malnutrition. Those who survive — there and elsewhere — are desperately in need of food and clothing. They need schooling, too, for their neglected minds grow as sick as their withered bodies.

They are the future . . .
if they are not saved, our world is lost!

Canadian Appeal for Children is now conducting its campaign to meet the challenge of these desperate and immediate needs. This is a campaign by the people of Canada, with a minimum objective of $10,000,000 to provide food, clothing and school supplies for the children — safeguarding the health of expectant and nursing mothers — in devastated lands around the world.

Wherever possible, all donations will be used for the purchase of Canadian goods, and the distribution of goods will be under the direction of responsible United Nations operating agencies.

Your help is needed now. Your sympathies. You want to give. But goodwill and good wishes are not enough. Since you may not be canvassed, don't let failure to act be on your conscience. Any BANK will accept your donation. Turn your sympathy and good wishes into a tangible contribution — go to your bank now and give.

FARMERS AND MEMBERS OF CO-OPERATIVES: consult your local organization as to the best way to make your contribution.
